

Cylinder pressure control and monitoring system configuration

This system is installed as an additional system of Eco control system, and consists of cylinder pressure sensor, Analogue Sampling Unit (ASU), HUB unit and PC.

Various kind of information are easily monitored by Liquid Crystal Panel (LCD) and PC as user interface.

LCD indicates information about cylinder pressure control and abnormal, and is used for pressure adjustment and trouble shooting.

PC indicates cylinder pressure and condition of engine output by application.

